Sabaudia (Latina), March 10, 2023 - Marco Di Costanzo, bronze medal-winning rower at the 2016 Rio de Janeiro Olympic Games, arrives in Sabaudia today to film the third episode of "Alè Europe," the new series produced by Red Carpet, a company of the Iervolino Group & Lady Bacardi Entertainment.

"Alè Europe," which will be available for free on CHILI starting in April, is an original and unprecedented format. In the course of the episodes, 12 champions tell their stories, discovering unexpected points of contact with successful projects made possible by European Union initiatives and funds: stories of the rebirth of places and monuments, the redevelopment of areas, scientific research, new technologies, associations and events in areas of Italy where they grew up or with which they have a special connection.

The episode filmed today focuses on the redevelopment of the Waterfront of Castellammare di Stabia and the restoration of the Fountain of the Rower through European funds from the Campania Region and the story of Marco Di Costanzo, filmed during his training at the Sabaudia Federal Center.

"Alè Europe" is a first-ever winning project of the European call for proposals - Support for information measures relating to the EU Cohesion policy. The project was developed with financial support from the European Union
